ELECTRICAL SAFETY – UNQUALIFIED WORKER

Training Program Quiz

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

1. Electricity always wants to travel to _____ to complete the circuit.

2. A shock from a 120-volt outlet at home is painful, and may lead to collapse or even death.

   ☐ True or ☐ False

3. Which part of the human body offers the most electrical resistance?

   a. Skin
   b. Soles of your feet
   c. Skeletal system
   d. None of the above

4. A secondary injury from an electrical shock would be?

   a. Burns to your clothing
   b. A broken arm from falling off a ladder
   c. A reprimand from your supervisor
   d. All of the above

5. Only _____ workers are permitted to repair or troubleshoot electrical equipment.

   a. qualified
   b. licensed
   c. designated

6. How often should power tools and extension cords be inspected?

   a. At least once every week
   b. Monthly if they're relatively new
   c. Before they're used
   d. A and B above

7. Portable electrical equipment does not need to be plugged into a GFCI outlet as long as it's only used in wet locations.

   ☐ True or ☐ False

8. To be safe, you should immediately reset a tripped circuit breaker.

   ☐ True or ☐ False

9. The severity of electrical shock only depends on the amount of the current.

   ☐ True or ☐ False

10. What things should be done with a damaged power tool or extension cord?

    a. Tag it out of service
    b. Repair by qualified worker
    c. Replace if it can't be repaired
    d. All of the above

© Business & Legal Reports, Inc